

Verlia Livorsi

Journalist

Profile

As a journalist for the past 8+ years, I have developed excellent writing skills and an eye for detail. I have also gained valuable experience working with different media platforms, including print, online, television and radio. In addition to my journalism background, I hold a degree in communications from California Institute of Technology University. My education and work experience make me an ideal candidate for any position that requires strong writing skills and knowledge of the latest communication trends.

Employment History

Investigative Journalist at The New York Times, New York

Mar, 2022 - Present

- Helped secure the release of three American hostages in North Korea
- Won a Pulitzer Prize for her investigative reporting on Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. election
- Broke the story of sexual misconduct allegations against Hollywood mogul Harvey Weinstein
- Exposed widespread corruption in FIFA, leading to the resignation of its president Sepp Blatter
- Revealed that Facebook had allowed Cambridge Analytica access to millions of users' data

Foreign Correspondent at The Washington Post, Washington D.C.

Jul, 2016 - Feb, 2022

- Helped a publication increase its readership by 20% through innovative storytelling and passionate writing.
- Track record of breaking stories that add objectivity to public discourse
- Improve online traffic for news website by 15% due to original reporting
- Awarded "Journalist of the Year" by Press Club for in-depth piece on local government corruption 5. Exposed wastefulness in state agencies that led to changes in policies and saved taxpayers millions of dollars annually

Memberships

National Association of Black Journalists (NABJ)

Nov, 2020

Radio Television Digital News Association (RTDNA)

Sep, 2019

Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ)

Jul, 2018

American Copy Editors Society (ACES)

Feb, 2018

✉ verlia.livorsi@gmail.com

☎ 982-194-5745

📍 10749 West Kaler Drive, Glendale, AZ 85307

Education

Bachelor's degree in Communications at California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, CA

Aug, 2011 - May, 2016

I learned about social media, writing for different formats including online and print, audio and video production.

Links

linkedin.com/in/verlialivorsi

Skills

Investigative skills

Writing and reporting

Deadline-oriented thinking

Interpersonal and communication

Editing and fact-checking

Audio/visual equipment operation

Languages

English

Spanish