

Rozelle Swims

Art Collector

I am an art collector with over 5 years of experience in the industry. I have a keen eye for detail and a passion for art, which has allowed me to build up a significant collection over the years. I have extensive knowledge of different artists and styles, and am always on the lookout for new pieces to add to my collection. I am also experienced in negotiating prices and dealing with auction houses, making sure that I get the best possible price for each piece.

rozelle.swims@gmail.com

(429) 408-0642

Main Street, Portland, ME 04101

Education

High School Diploma at Portland High School, Portland, ME

Sep 2013 - May 2017

I've learned about different subjects like math, science, English, and history.

Links

linkedin.com/in/rozelleswims

Skills

Art history

Aesthetics

Art criticism

Visual analysis

Research skills

Organizational skills

Communication skills

Languages

English

Bengali

Employment History

Art Collector at The Portland Museum of Art, ME

Jun 2022 - Present

- Successfully negotiated the purchase of a painting by Pablo Picasso for $2 million.
- Bought a painting at auction for $5,000 and sold it six months later for $15,000.
- Successfully bid on and won a Jackson Pollock painting at auction for $4 million.
- Donated a painting to the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) in New York City.
- Lent a painting to the Tate Gallery in London for an exhibition on post-war American art.

Assistant Art Collector at The Colby College Museum of Art, ME

Jul 2017 - May 2022

- Successfully negotiated the purchase of a painting by John Singer Sargent for $4.5 million.
- Worked with the curator to develop and install a new exhibition of 16th-century Italian art, which was widely praised by critics.
- Successfully bid on and acquired a rare Fabergé egg at auction for $1.2 million.
- Sourced and purchased an important painting by Pablo Picasso for the collection, which was featured in a major article in Artforum magazine.
- Contributed to the development of the museum's new website, which won a Webby Award for Best Art Museum Website.

Certificates

Certified Art Appraiser

Feb 2021

Certified Art Conservationist

Aug 2019

Memberships

American Association of Museums

Association of Art Museum Directors